

CHENNAI SEMINAR

a Report

Seminar on UN Certification for Packaging of Hazardous Cargo for Exports

Event Details

Date: 5th March, 2010

Venue: GRT Grant Hotel, Chennai

Organised by: Indian Institute of Packaging

Snapshot

A Seminar on 'UN Certification for Packaging of Hazardous Cargo for Exports' was organised for the third time in Chennai on 5th March, 2010 at the GRT Grant Hotel Chennai.

Sudhakar, MD, Bliss Group of Companies who is the oldest serving member of IIP, Chennai share the dais with Mr. N. C. Saha, Director, IIP.

Mr. N. C. Saha, Director, IIP made the welcome speech and highlighted the objective of the seminar.

Thereafter, in the keynote address, the Chairman mentioned about the role of IIP and the urge of arranging these kinds of seminars and the support which the industry is giving to IIP.

Capt. M. M. Saggi who was all praise about IIP's commendable role in providing the perfect platform to the users of UN certification said that it was mandatory to test the packaging of dangerous goods.

Mr. Sudhakar in his speech said that he is an integral part of IIP and was the first member who has seen IIP, Chennai developing over

The Chief Guest for the function was Capt. M. M. Saggi, Senior Nautical Advisor, Ministry of Shipping, Govt. of India and Chief Examiner (Master and Mates). Ms. Namathevi, General Manager, Air India Cargo, Chennai Cargo was the Guest of Honour. Mr. Sanjay Bhatia, Chairman, IIP was also present for the inaugural function. IIP had its long time member Mr. G.

the years.

In her speech, Ms. Namathevi urged the users to utilise the expertise that IIP have in dangerous goods packaging and make the task for the officials easy.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. G. B. Reddy, Joint Director and Head, IIP, Chennai.